ST EDWARD'S MUSIC & ARTS FESTIVAL 2017

continues this week.

Festival Exhibition: paintings by the late Laurie Williams ARIBA.

15-22 Oct. The Last Straw. In the Church grounds: An installation by Clive Ward highlighting the danger posed by plastic waste in our oceans ... incorporating the artwork of the Sunday School.

15-22 Oct (View Fri 20th 5pm). "Offering" by Sue Hunt & Susan Adams. What is art if not a gift? Few artists are economically sustained by their practice yet are compelled to continually make and offer their artworks to fellow creatures. Sue Hunt and Susan Adams explore offering through a collaboration involving silverpoint drawings and sculpture, with an opportunity to pass on the gift by offering to Mind Cymru.

Wed 18th. 7.45pm. Cardiff & Vale Symphonic Brass.

Fri 20th. 7.30pm. Jazz: The Gentle Rain Ensemble.

Sat 21st. 11am. Coffee Concert: Noru Hirano (violin) & Alison Dite (piano) – Beethoven Violin Sonata op12 no 1 and Saint Saens Violin Sonata in D minor op75.

1pm. Book Reading & Signing. Nathan Munday will read from his latest book, Seven Days: a story of adventure and spirituality as father and son travel the "Rue du Bonjour" across the pilgrim route of the high Pyrenees, at St Edward's 1pm-2pm on Sat 21 Oct. The reading will be followed by a Q&A session and book signing. All welcome.

21st-22nd. 11am-4pm. Widening Access Summer School Exhibition (in the schoolroom): Robert Blundell, Kathryn Murphy, Hannah Pickering, Gerri Blundell, Kerry Wallace, Keith Elwyn Evans, Anastasia Sidorenco, Claudia Carrillo. This is Cardiff Metropolitan University's Widening Access Summer School's first exhibition, with artists exhibiting for the first time. This mixed-media exhibition was either produced at the Summer School or inspired by what they learned.

Sat 21st. 2pm-4pm. Folded Books Drop-in Workshop. Transform a tatty old book into a work of art with just a few simple folds. Doreen Barnaville from Cardiff Met's School of Art & Design Library will show you how to create a unique sculptural piece which you can then take home. Bring a book you no longer want – or use one of ours – we'll have plenty!

FROM THE WALLICH. Thank you all so much for your donations! The residents of Sir Julian Hodge Hostel loved it all. Everyone is very grateful for the donations received by St Margaret's and St Edward's vicarage; it put a smile on everyone's face. Many residents at the Hostel are low on money and food, therefore any donations that are received are greatly appreciated by every single person. Thank you so much for your generosity and kindness.

WELCOME. We extend a warm welcome to all visitors and newcomers. Please make yourself known to one of the sidesmen if you are new with us.
