ANTHEMS. The anthem at the Eucharist is "Laudamus Te" from the Gloria by Antonio Vivaldi (1675-1741). The Introit at Evensong is "Lead Me, Lord", from "Praise the Lord, O My Soul" by Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-76), and the anthem is "All things bright and beautiful" by John Rutter (b.1945).

CLEAN UP DAY on Sat 29 Sept. As well as the usual cleaning/tidying jobs we are planning to start writing the Poppy Crosses to be used at the WW1 Centenary Memorial weekend in November. Poppy Crosses, pens and what to write will be provided. All we need is you to record the names/dates on the crosses. Many hands will make light work.

HANNAH AND CALLIE are taking part in the Cardiff half marathon again this year on Sun 7 Oct for the Milton Keynes Bereavement group which helps families come to terms with the loss of a child. It's a charity very close to their hearts and they would really appreciate sponsorship! Either donate online or speak to Hannah. www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/halfmarathon18

ST EDWARD'S BUILDING PROJECT. All the essential surveys and reports now have been completed, and we are a little ahead of schedule. We now intend to bring forward the submission of plans to the DAC to October. They meet on 23 Oct, which means we will have to submit our faculty application by 5 Oct. We would then hope to get our Planning Application in to the Local Authority for 26 Oct.

WELCOME. We extend a warm welcome to all visitors and newcomers. Please make yourself known to one of the sidesmen if you are new with us.
