COFFEE & 100 CLUB after the Eucharist this morning.

SAVE THE CHILDREN. We continue to support this charity through our Bring & Buy Stall at the back of the church. Sadly, ten days ago three Save the Children staff members were killed in an attack on the office in Jalalabad, Afghanistan. They are on the front line there, delivering urgently-needed health and nutrition programmes, education and protection to children.

ANTHEMS. The anthem at the Eucharist is "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace" by Charles Lee Williams (1853-1935). The Introit at Evensong is "Hide me under the shadow of your wings" by John Ebenezer West (1863-1929), and the anthem is "The heavens are telling" from the oratorio "The Creation" by Josef Haydn (1732-1809).

THANKS to Andy Clementson for his carpentry work to make the choir stalls safe, especially supporting the benches that were in danger of breaking away. The front stalls in particular were designed mainly for children, but are now often occupied by a whole row of adults!

THANKS to Dorothy for laundering the altar cloth, and to Sandra and Jane for cleaning the brass.

THE CROSSES ON THE EAGLE LECTERN are very fragile, please avoid handling them; thanks to Alan for re-attaching one of them recently.

EVENING PRAYER will be said on Monday and Tuesday at 6pm and Thursday at 7pm this week. Morning Prayer Saturday at 9am.

ANTHEMS. The anthem at the Eucharist is "Then did Elijah the prophet", from the oratorio "Elijah" by Felix Mendelssohn (1809-47). The Introit at Evensong is "Why fum'th in fight" by Thomas Tallis (c.1505-1585) – the third of nine tunes contributed by Tallis for Archbishop Parker's Psalter (much later used by Vaughan Williams in his Fantasia on a Theme by Thomas Tallis), and the anthem is "Sicut Cervus" by Giovanni Pierluigi Palestrina (1525-1594).

CHOIR NEWS. Three new youngsters are preparing to join the choir before Easter. Practices are 6.45 Thursday evenings. Do give them your encouragement and if any other youngsters aged 6 and over are interested, please speak to Heather.

CHURCH CLEANING. We now have a paid cleaner once a week as there were not enough volunteers to get a rota together. Please help out by cleaning up if you notice litter or mess and by leaving things as you find them. The Dyson in the vestry is light and easy to use. There are also cleaning materials in the vestry and in the cupboard outside the vestry door. The next clean-up day is Sat 31 March, 10am-12pm; all welcome to help keep the church and grounds looking good. Thank you!
