TRINITYTIDE. The Calendar used by the Church in Wales has changed according to rules introduced by the Standing Liturgical Advisory Commission (SLAC) and approved by the Bench of Bishops. The most obvious change is that the "Sundays after Pentecost" will once more be called "Sundays after Trinity". This is for a six year experimental period.

WELCOME. We extend a warm welcome to all visitors and newcomers. Please make yourself known to one of the sidesmen if you are new with us.
